

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THE SESSION TO EXPIRE TO-DAY

SINE DIE.

Very Little Work Done Yesterday—Bills Passed in the Senate and Senate Bills Passed in the House—Committees Appointed.

The session of the Legislature, including its extension of three days, ends to-day. Practically the body adjourned Monday, in order to give the clerks time to enclose all the bills that had passed and the Governor opportunity to approve or reject them, the three days were added.

Yesterday the Senate was adjourned to meet at 12 o'clock, and the clerks had passed the bills before Mr. Lovenstein, who had been designated to fill the chair after the departure of Lieutenant-Governor Tyler, rapped the body to order.

After passing two hours "to incorporate the Franklin and Pleasure Club," and to settle the town of Fincastle to subscribe to the capital stock of the Fincastle and Southern Hotelot Development Company, the Senate sent a messenger to the House to ascertain whether it would be adjourned. The message from the House was adjourned to noon to-day. The Senate did likewise.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

The House met at 12:30 o'clock; Speaker Cardwell in the chair.

In accordance with the joint resolution previously passed, Speaker Cardwell made the following appointments:

On the Committee of Criminal Expenses—

Messrs. Hay, Downing and Flood.

On the Committee to settle the dispute over the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland—Messrs. Gibson, Ryan, Cabell, Carter and Gandy.

On the Committee to examine the oyster product, with a view of ascertaining revenue therefrom: Messrs. J. T. Coleman, Joseph B. Davis, A. B. Lightner, J. S. Jones, Joyce, and Saunders.

THANKS TO THE CHURCHES.

Mr. Ryman made a resolution, which was agreed to, expressing the thanks of the House of Delegates to the ministers who had given their services in opening the sessions with prayer.

HOUSE ROUTINE.

Senate bill passed: To submit to the voters of Wise county the question of removing the county seat of that county.

The House adjourned shortly before 1 o'clock, having been in session barely a half hour.

There is no business before the body. The session has been prolonged until to-day in order to receive the bills approved by the Governor, which will be sent to both houses this morning.

IN HYMEN'S BONDS.

A Pretty Marriage Takes Place at Moore Memorial Church.

Yesterday afternoon at 5:30 Moore Memorial Church was crowded. The occasion was the wedding of Mr. Thomas M. Cullingworth and Miss Clara L. Yarrington, and friends and relatives of the couple saw one of the prettiest marriages that has taken place during the Lenten season.

Precisely at the hour the guests walked up the aisle, the organist, music of the wedding march, and ranged around the chancel, they were followed by the bride and groom. Rev. Dr. D. F. Spragg, pastor, and Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, of the Presbyterian church, both arrayed in the surplice of the Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very handsome in a plumed broad-cloth suit, with hat to match, and she carried a bunch of Nephew roses.

The usher were evening suits and boutonnieres, and wore Messrs. Alexander, of Philadelphia; George Cardwell, Herbert Claiborne, John Fairbanks, Daniel C. Zoll, Kilkenny, Alvey and Mason. Mr. Harvey L. Harwood acted as best man.

After the ceremony, at a large number of friends, the couple took the train for the North, and will, during their tour, visit Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Yarrington is the daughter of Mr. Martin C. Ryman, president of the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad. Mr. M. C. Ryman is manager of Mr. Joseph N. Cullingworth's tobacco factory, and is a brother of ex-Postmaster Cullinworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullingworth will reside at the Exchange Hotel when they return to this city.

THE FEAST OF ESTHER.

Its Observance in Richmond—The Purim Bal Powder.

The Feast of Esther, or the Purim, will be celebrated to-day. The observance of the season began yesterday evening, when the Book of Esther was read at the synagogue.

This morning at 10 o'clock another service will be celebrated in the Synagogue.

The Purim celebration will take place to-night, when the Purim Bal Powder will be held at Belvidere Hall. Hebrews only will be admitted and all are required to wear ancient costumes. Great preparation have been made for the ball, which will be conducted under the auspices of the Jefferson Literary Circle, which is twenty-three years old. A large orchestra has been engaged and an elegant supper arranged.

The ball will commemorate the days of prayer, mourning and abstinence from food undergone by the Jews of Susa, Persia, at a time when the existence of the entire race was imperiled, as related in the Bible to the almost entire Book of Esther. On the last night, when sold in human food past, the lips of the Purim Bal Powder, which is twenty-four hours old.
